

WASHINGTON STATE BOUNDARY REVIEW BOARD FOR DOUGLAS COUNTY

Special Purpose District Application Form

Five members serve on the Boundary Review Board for Douglas County. Two members are appointed by the governor, one by the mayors of the city and towns in Douglas County, one by the Douglas County Board of Commissioners and one by the special purpose districts. This application is for the Special Purpose District nominations. Special purpose districts eligible to nominate individuals include water, sewer, fire, irrigation and flood control districts.

Requirements for the Boundary Review Board members include attending all the regular monthly meetings held at 4:00 PM on the fourth Thursday of each month, as well as attending public hearings and special meetings held about six to eight times a year, some of which may be held in the evenings. Board members must also be able to evaluate technical planning and environmental documents and economic reports as well as testimony from the public to make their decisions.

It is also required of Boundary Review Board members that "no appointee may be an official or employee of the county of a governmental unit in the county, or a consultant or advisor on a contractual or regular retained basis of the county, any governmental unit in the county or any agency or association thereof." RCW 36.93.061.

Please include with your completed application form, a list of three references, and a resume, if available, and a letter of nomination from a Special Purpose District in Douglas County. Send to the Boundary Review Board Chief Clerk, 140 19th Street, NW, ste A, East Wenatchee, WA 98802.
