MOTION TO SET ASIDE JUDGMENT

On the following legal basis under CRLJ 60(b) (designate specific part or parts of the rule that apply): DO NOT PROVIDE ANY INFORMATION ABOUT THE VIOLATION

RULES REGULATING MOTIONS FOR RELIEF FROM TRAFFIC INFRACTION JUDGMENTS

1. For good cause shown, and upon such terms as the court deems just, the court may set aside a judgment entered upon a failure to appear at a contested or mitigation hearing or failure to respond with the fifteen days from the date of issue on the following grounds:

- Clerical mistakes in judgments, orders, or other parts of the record and errors therein arising from oversight or omission may be corrected by the court at any time of its own initiative or on the motion of any party and after such notice if any, as the court orders.
- Mistakes; inadvertence, surprise, excusable neglect newly discovered evidence; fraud, etc. On motion and upon such terms as are just, the court may relieve a party or his legal representative from a final judgment, order or proceeding for the following reasons:
 - Mistakes, inadvertence, surprise, excusable neglect or irregularity in obtaining a judgment or order;
 - For erroneous proceeding against a minor or person of unsound mind, when the condition of such defendant does not appear in the record, or the error in proceedings;
 - Venue is improper and the judgment or order has been entered by default;
 - Fraud (whether heretofore denominated intrinsic or extrinsic) misrepresentation, or other misconduct of an adverse party;
 - the judgment is void
 - Judgment has been satisfied, released or discharged, or a prior judgment upon which it is based has been reversed or otherwise vacated:
 - Death of one of its parties before judgment in the action;
 - Unavoidable casualty or misfortune preventing the party from prosecuting or defending;
 - Error in judgment shown by a minor, within 12 months after arriving at full age; or
 - Any other reason justifying relief from the judgment, order or proceeding, was entered or taken.

2. Request for Setting Aside Judgment must be;
- (a) In writing.
 - (b) Designate specifically the section or sections under which relief from judgment is requested.
 - (b) State with particularity and detail the facts which support the designation of the section that is claimed to apply. General listing of the applicable section without facts to support the applicability of the section will be disregarded.
 - (e) Filed with the court within the 1 year period after the judgment is entered.
