FILING TO BE A PCO CANDIDATE

Becoming a candidate for Precinct Committee Officer (PCO)

To become a candidate for Precinct Committee Officer (PCO), a voter must complete and file a Declaration of Candidacy for Precinct Committee Officer. At the time of filing, you must be registered to vote in the precinct for which you are filing. You may only file as a Democratic Party PCO or Republican Party PCO.

Contact our office if you have any questions about your voter registration or precinct information.

When to file

The candidate filing period begins the Monday two weeks prior to Memorial Day and ends the following Friday.

All Declarations of Candidacy for PCO must be received before the close of business on the last day of the filing period. Declarations of Candidacy for PCO received after this date, regardless of the postmark, will not be accepted.

Candidates may file online starting at 9 a.m. on the first day of filing, until 4 p.m. on the last day of filing. Declarations of Candidacy filed in person must be during business hours. Mailed Declarations of Candidacy for PCO may be submitted in advance up to ten business days before the filing period begins. Filings received prior to this date will be returned to the candidate.

Where to file

Candidates for precincts within Douglas County must file with Douglas County Elections

Cost to File

There is no filing fee

Getting Ready to File

Before you file for office, you will need to:

- Verify that your voter registration information is current. You can verify your voter registration information online at myvote.wa.gov.
- Decide how you want your name to appear on the ballot.
- Have your contact information ready.

Your Name on the Ballot

When filing for office, input your name exactly as you wish it to appear on the ballot. You may use a nickname by which you are commonly known as your first name, but your last name must be the name under which you are registered to vote. For example, if you are registered to vote as William Smith but are commonly known as Bill, you may use Bill Smith for your ballot name.

You may not use a nickname that denotes present or past occupation or military rank, use a nickname that denotes your position on issues or political affiliation or use a nickname designed to intentionally mislead voters.

How to File your Declaration of Candidacy for PCO

Filing your Declaration of Candidacy is important and as a best practice, Douglas County Elections recommends that you submit your Declaration of Candidacy for PCO as early as possible during filing week. Our office will not accept late submissions.

Online filing is the easiest way to file for office. Online candidate filing opens on Monday, May 14, 2018 at 9 a.m. and is available 24 hours a day until Friday, May 18, 2018, at 4 p.m. Candidates in the system at 4 p.m. on the last day of filing will have until 4:30 p.m. to submit their filing. Candidates who have not completed their filing by 4:30 p.m., will be shut out of the system and their filing invalidated.

Candidates who file online will receive a confirmation email when their filing has been received and again when their filing has been approved.

Candidates also have the option of filing their Declaration of Candidacy for PCO in-person at the Elections office during business hours, starting on Monday, May 14, 2018 at 8:30 a.m. and ending on Friday, May 18, 2018 at 4:30 p.m. No late filings will be accepted.

If you will be out of town and will not have computer access during the week of candidate filing, you may submit your Declaration of Candidacy for PCO by mail beginning on April 30, 2018. Filings submitted by mail must be received by 4:30 p.m. on May 18, 2018 regardless of postmark. Filings received by mail prior to April 30, 2018 will be returned to the candidate.

Once filed, a Declaration of Candidacy for PCO may not be altered. If you decide during the filing period to change the Declaration of Candidacy for PCO, you must first withdraw and then re-file by the deadline.

Withdrawal of Candidacy

The deadline for withdrawing from office is the Monday following filing week.

To withdraw, a candidate must submit a signed request that their name be removed from the ballot. A Withdrawal of Candidacy form is available on our website.

Deadline to Withdraw Candidacy
May 21, 2018, at 4:30 p.m.

Ballot Information

Will My Name Appear On the Ballot?

Only contested races appear on the ballot. For example, if two candidates file for a Democratic Party position, but only one candidate files for the Republican Party position, only the Democratic PCO race will appear on the ballot. If, after the last day to withdraw, only one candidate has filed for a party position, that candidate is deemed elected and Douglas County Elections will issue a certification of election. Certificates of election are provided to either the Democratic Party or Republican Party, they are not provided directly to the candidates.

Ballot Information

PCO races only appear on even-year primary election ballots. PCO races appear at the end of the ballot. If both party positions qualify to appear on the ballot, the order is determined by the statewide results of the last presidential election.

Candidate order within each party is determined by lot. After the close of the candidate filing period, Douglas County Elections will conduct a lot draw to determine the order in which candidate names will appear on the Primary Election ballot.

A candidate's declared party abbreviation will be printed next to each candidate's name. Also, below each candidate, the following statement will be printed, as required by law, "I affirm I am a Democrat" if the candidate is a Democrat or "I affirm I am a Republican" if the candidate is a Republican.

A write-in line is not printed on the ballot for PCO races as there are no write-in candidates permitted.

Counting the Votes

Counting the Votes

Voters may only cast a vote for one PCO candidate. If votes are cast for more than one candidate, the race is overvoted and neither vote counts. There is no minimum requirement for the number of votes cast for a candidate to be elected. Contested PCO races are subject to recount laws. The candidate receiving the most votes in the primary is elected. PCO races do not appear on the General Election ballot.

Certifying the Election

Results for PCO races certify at the same time as other offices, fourteen days following the date of the primary election. Certificates of election are provided to either the Democratic Party or Republican Party, they are not provided directly to the candidate.
